HOPE, Ark. (AP) — Newspaper publisher Alex H. Washburn said today he would appeal a court ruling which refused to allow a federal income tax deduction for money spent in circulating a referendum petition.

Washburn declared that "this is not a matter of income tax — the income tax law is merely the instrument by which the federal government is seeking to censor and fine a newspaper editor."

Washburn, editor and publisher of the Hope Star, sponsored a petition to refer to popular vote a 1955 legislative act exempting feed for livestock and poultry from the state sales tax.

He claimed as a deduction from his personal income tax $6,024.98 for expenses incurred in connection with preparation and circulation of the petition.

The Internal Revenue Service disallowed the claim and so, on March 11, did the federal Tax Court.

Washburn said he will file an appeal from the tax court ruling with the 8th U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals at St. Louis.

"I didn't receive that $6,000—I spent it," Washburn said.

He said the people who received the money paid income tax on it or were liable for the tax under the law.

The exemption didn't reach a popular vote. The Arkansas Supreme Court ruled that the ballot title for the referendum measure hadn't been approved by law.

The court held that, as a result, the matter couldn't appear on the ballot.

Borg-Warner Plant Will Relocate

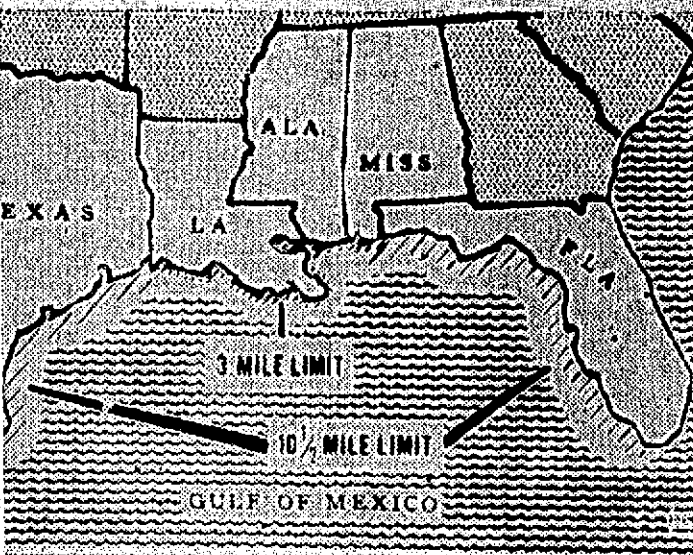

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Atkins Corp. says it may abandon its plant here and relocate in the south.

In a letter to the company's 600 employees yesterday, Frank G. Fisher, president and general manager, pointed out plant operations would continue here for at least two to three more months.

Fisher said a "substantial percentage" of the company's available market is in the South where larger groups of furniture manufacturers are located.

Although no new site has been located, Fisher said, the company is exploring the possibility of locating nearer the southern market.

Norve Division of Borg-Warner is building a huge new plant at Fort Smith, Ark.

TEXAS WINS TIDELANDS — Louisiana was defeated, along with Alabama and Mississippi, when the U.S. won title to the oil-rich off-shore areas beyond the traditional three-mile limit. The federal government lost to Texas when the Supreme Court found these two states were entitled to a coastal belt 10 1/2 miles wide. Louisiana, whose immediate financial stake was highest, promised to continue fighting for the vast income from the Gulf oil royalties.

Israeli Agents Track Down, Capture Nazi Exterminator Who Killed 6 Million Jews

By SAM SUMMERLIN

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP) — The hollow-cheeked, droopy-rosed man with the look of fear stepped from a bus in a Buenos Aires suburb.

He was one of a crowd of early evening commuters, on his way home from work to his wife and family. He never arrived.

Suddenly a car darted out of traffic. The man was dragged inside and whisked off.

Informants said this was the end of the 15-year manhunt across the world for Adolf Eichmann, a Jew-killer of the Hitler era.

Israel, which now holds the 54-year-old former colonel of the Nazi SS, has announced Eichmann will stand trial for his part in the Nazi extermination of the six million Jews.

Israel has clamped a cover of secrecy on how its agents tracked down the war criminal. The generally accepted story is that he was trapped in Argentina and rushed out of the country May 12 or 13 on the plane that had brought Israel's delegation to the Argentine independence anniversary celebrations.

Reliable sources said that the fugitive Nazi had lived a life of fear on the run after Germany's defeat in World War II. They said he spent the last eight years in Latin America.

Informants said the once arrogant Nazi colonel "traveled from country to country. He changed jobs, he changed names. But wherever he went, he lived constantly in fear of being killed."

Eichmann was probably fingered inadvertently by his wife, Vera. Vienna reports say she turned up in Linz, Austria, in 1958 to renew her Austrian passport and Israeli agents followed her to her husband's hideout in Latin America.

New Figures May Take State Off the Bottom

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The National Education Assn. and the Arkansas Education Department finally are together on their figures on per pupil expenditure for education in Arkansas.

The correct figure, it seems, is $191, if a $4,275,000 outlay for teacher retirement is not included in the total for operating expense. The figure is $216 if the teacher retirement cost is added.

NEA created a temporary tutor earlier this week when it announced the $191 figure, placing Arkansas 50th among the states.

Education Commissioner Arch Ford retorted the figure should be $205. Later he said it should be $216.

Yesterday, NEA said it had arrived at a $205 figure for Arkansas, but that this was reduced to $191 by the Arkansas Education Department which was permitted to check the original figure.

"We admit someone here made a mistake," Ford said today. "But it's straightened out as far as I'm concerned. I just want to find out if we can count that teacher retirement money or not. I think it's a justifiable operating expense because it's a teacher benefit."

Acceptance by the NEA of either the $205 or $216 figure would take Arkansas off the bottom of the list.

Arkansas Spinach Is Rated High

WASHINGTON (AP) — A sample of Arkansas spinach had the second highest amount of strontium 90 of eight samples from around the country, the Public Health Service says. It said the amount was not dangerous.

The Service, which yesterday reported new high levels for strontium 90 in spinach, tea and some animal forage crops sampled in 1958 and 1959, said the Arkansas spinach contained 438 micromicrocuries per kilogram. Samples ranged from a low of 21 micromicrocuries per kilogram in an Arizona sample to 461 micromicrocuries in a Virginia sample.

The Service said no dietary hazards are involved. "Strontium 90 is regarded as the most dangerous material in nuclear fallout."

The Service said that the average consumption of spinach is such that even the highest strontium 90 content found in the samples did not create hazard.

Indiana Admits Man Kept in Mental Hospital and Jail Illegally for 63 Years

By DON REEDER

LOGANSPORT, Ind. (AP) — Henry Sullivan sits in a little room on a shady street, looking out at a world he last saw as a free man in 1897.

"They kept me locked up and cheated me of my constitutional rights for 63 years," the 85-year-old man muttered.

And the State of Indiana admits Henry is right. Until his release Wednesday from Logansport State Hospital, Sullivan had been held in various prisons and mental hospitals, without ever having been officially declared insane.

What terrible crime did Henry commit so long ago to earn such punishment? He stole $15 worth of brass junk.

A governor now dead many years transferred Sullivan by executive order to a mental hospital after Henry served the full length of his 1 to 14-year term.

Sullivan might be in custody yet, if he hadn't run away from the hospital two years ago and strode into the local courtroom to demand his rights. He finally got his freedom — conditional on a three-month period of convalescent leave spent boarding with an elderly woman who once ran a nursing home.

He'll get a $70 monthly pension, paying $85 of it for his board and room.

Henry doesn't like the strings attached to his release. He wants outright discharge, so that he can sue to recover the family farm and sue a railroad for the accidental death of his father in 1923.

But hospital officials think Henry will be back—probably within three weeks. They figure he has lived so long in state institutions that he won't be able to adjust to this streamlined, chrome-plated world of 1960.

Henry disagrees. He made that plain as he shuffled around the hospital grounds preparing to leave. Dressed in a gaudy sport jacket and heavy vest, his shirt collar turned up in gay 50s style.

Says State Takes Over Too Much

HELENA, Ark. (AP) — Circuit Judge Elmo Taylor of Searcy, ruling in a tax assessment case yesterday, remarked he feels the state government has taken over functions that should be left to county officials.

Bill Taylor's opinion did not affect his ruling. He upheld a decision by County Judge C. S. Fleider who had refused to change some property assessments.

Several property owners appealed their assessments on grounds that an assessment manual prepared by the state Assessment Coordination Division was not followed.

Taylor ruled use of the manual was not mandatory.

"The state's property reassessment law has a lot of bugs in it and needs correction," Taylor said.

"However, I am not a maker of laws."

Brothers Steal Plane, Both Killed

POMONA, Calif. (AP) — Two young brothers who had read a book on how to fly stole a plane today and flew it for 10 minutes. Then they crashed to their deaths in a screaming power dive. Their small brown dog was killed with them.

The single-engine plane exploded on impact. It just missed a group of houses, plunging straight into the ground at a school.

Only three weeks ago, police said, the youngsters tried to steal an airplane at the same field from which they took off just after midnight Wednesday. They said then they "would die trying" to fly.

The victims were James A. McDonald, 14, and Thomas, 12. Descriptions of the crash varied.

Police Lt. D.F. Archer said the boy at the plane's controls apparently "gunned it wide open" as it nosed toward the ground. A witness said it sounded as though the engine sputtered just before the fatal dive.

Police could not determine who was at the controls.

The boys were listed as runaways by their father on Tuesday.

On their earlier flying attempt they were caught by deputies as they taxied a light plane down the runway at Cable Air Field in nearby Claremont. Juvenile authorities handled the matter.

One boy said then he had read

367 Are Killed

CHICAGO (AP) — A final tally shows that 367 persons were killed in traffic accidents over the three-day Memorial Day holiday.

The record for a three-day Memorial Day period is 371, set in 1958. The fatalities also fell short of a pre-holiday estimate of 375 made by the National Safety Council.

The overall toll of 579 deaths, including traffic and those resulting from boating, drowning and miscellaneous accidents far surpassed the previous three-day Memorial weekend record of 504 set in 1947.

Venus, goddess of love, was originally the Latin goddess of spring and of vines.

Getting a Red Tinge

LONDON (AP) — Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery came home from Red China Tuesday night, advocating that the Communists be given Formosa.

"I believe there should be one China and not two," the former NATO deputy commander told reporters, "and that China is the one which has its government in Peking."

Husband Had A Mme. Butterfly Should Wife Forgive and Forget?

Dear Dorothy Dix:

A problem has been on my mind ever since my husband arrived from Korea. When we first met four years ago he had returned from a two-year tour in Japan. After dating him several times he told me he was married but suing for divorce because his wife had refused to go with him to Japan. I later found out that she didn't go because he was living with a Japanese girl and didn't want her there. He said I was the only one he ever loved. The autumn following our marriage he was assigned to overseas duty in Korea for one year. During his stay there he was in Japan twice — maybe often. When he returned I looked in his address book and saw a new address for the Japanese girl. He became very angry when I asked him why. I no longer trust him. What conclusion should I draw about his visit to his ex-mistress? —Unhappy Wife

Dear Dorothy Dix: From your own statement your husband was no saint when you married him.

A man may have very definite standards of right and wrong as far as being honest, loyal and considerate go, yet he hopelessly fixed-up emotionally on the morals of extra-curricular love-making.

Be realistic. Prolonged separations are bad, even for good husbands. If you love yours, go with him next time he's assigned foreign duty. Meanwhile, let the past bury the past, including the Japanese mistress.

Not long ago I published the letter of a young unwed mother who gave her baby for adoption rather than risk the unhappiness of a "duty" marriage for herself and unborn child. I approved. Mrs. B.B. raises a dissenting voice:

Dear Dorothy Dix: I am a nurse and know what I'm talking about. It is time that girls and boys who bring innocent little souls into the world start thinking of their babies instead of themselves. This girl had too much pride to marry a boy who didn't love her. Where was her pride when she was getting into trouble?

I say, marry the boy and give the child a name. Who knows, maybe the parents would fall in love after marriage. This girl and all the others who give up their babies will be forever looking for them down through the years saying, "Let's see, baby will be just that child's age now. I wonder if it is mine! This one looks like me — it has blond curls too." —Mrs. B.B.

Dear Mrs. B.B.: In the past marriage was the only face-saving solution. The mother had a wedding ring, the baby a name and everybody, including the father was happy. In reality, the opposite is more often true, according to social workers, judges of domestic relations courts, doctors and even clergymen. They say — and I agree — that the boy feels he has been trapped into marriage. In turn, the girl blames the boy for her plight. Neither is equipped morally or financially for matrimony.

The child has a far better chance with foster parents who really want it.

Send your problem to DOROTHY DIX. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope, and address her in care of this newspaper.

Russians Told

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet public was told today of the death of Boris Pasternak some 36 hours after the Nobel Prize winner succumbed at his home outside Moscow.

The brief newspaper announcement made no mention of the condemnation which Soviet writers and the Soviet press heaped on the author of "Doctor Zhivago" after he was named for the Nobel Prize in literature in 1958.

Merit System Is Under Probe

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Federal officials are conducting a routine check into operation of Arkansas' Merit System Council.

Katherine Taylor of Dallas, Tex., regional supervisor of state merit systems, is handling the check.

Miss Taylor said her investigation was not connected with a Civil Service investigation of charges that employees of the state Employment Security Division have been pressured into contributing to Gov. Orval E. Faubus' fourth term campaign fund.

For the year ending March 31, 1871, 458 steamboats touched Little Rock.

Question Now Is Can Pirates Keep Rolling

By ED WILKS

Associated Press Sports Writer

Bob Friend, a 22-game winner in 1958 and a 19-game loser last season, definitely is back in business with Pittsburgh. But the big question now is whether the Pirates can stay in business on a 17-game, three-week road trip.

Friend won his sixth, putting away his third shutout with a three-hitter, as Pittsburgh defeated Cincinnati 5-0 Wednesday night.

It was the fifth straight success for the Pirates and left them 1½ games ahead of San Francisco in the National League race as they closed a 10-4 home stand.

Now all the Pirates have to do is to keep rolling on the road trip that opens at Philadelphia Friday night.

The Giants stayed close with a 2-2 decision over Chicago's Cubs, breaking a 1-1 tie on winning pitcher Sam Jones' two-out double in the ninth. Milwaukee regained third from Cincinnati with a 6-3 victory at Philadelphia. St. Louis rapped Los Angeles 5-2.

In the American League, Baltimore built a 2½-game lead, largest of the season, off Hal Brown's one-hitter in a 4-1 victory over New York. Chicago's White Sox defeated Detroit 6-0 on a four-hitter by Frank Baumann. The other games—Cleveland at Kansas City and Boston's two-night pair with Washington—were rained out.

Friend, who has lost two, struck out six and walked just one while giving the Pittsburgh staff its first complete game in a dozen tries. All of the Reds' hits were singles.

The Giants had a 1-1 tie, but had only two hits off losing lefty Dick Ellsworth (2-2) with two out in the ninth. Then Bob Schmidt singled and Jones, after watching his mates leave seven men on base, ended it with the two-hitter. Jones (6-4) allowed five hits and struck out seven, losing a shutout in the fourth when Ernie Banks singled and Ed Bouchee tripled.

Ken Boyer upped his major-league leading home run total to 10 and drove in two runs for the Cardinals. His single and Daryl Spencer's two-run double brought St. Louis from behind in a three-run fifth against loser Sandy Kousser. Ray Sadecki gave up a double and a home run.

Don Thompson ran up the victory flag for the first time this year after four losses.

The Crackers remain in fifth place in the blazing Southern Assn. race, only 2½ games behind Birmingham. In fact, only six games separate seventh-place Memphis from the top spot.

There are about 1 billion dollars in 900,000 gold bricks stored today in Ft. Knox.

Restoration of Colonial Williamsburg, Va., cost John D. Rockefeller Jr. 52½ million dollars.

Travels Idle, Crackers Jump Lead

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The way the Atlanta Crackers are rocketing along these days, it wouldn't pay any of the Southern Assn. first division clubs to falter.

Manager Rubo Walker's Los Angeles Dodger farmhands are riding the crest of a five-game winning streak and have enjoyed route-gone pitching six consecutive times.

Mobile again felt victim to the onslaught of the rampaging Crackers last night. The score was 13-4 and marked the second consecutive victory for Atlanta over the Bears. Prior to the Mobile games, the Crackers whipped Birmingham three straight after dropping the series opener.

The Barons clung to their two-game lead over idle Little Rock and Nashville with a 6-3 victory over Chattanooga. Third place Shreveport gained a half game on the rained-out Travelers and Vols by pounding out an 8-5 triumph over Memphis in a game called at the end of seven innings due to rain.

Tim Harkness, cracker first sacker, was a one-man gang at the plate. He nailed Mobile pitching for a single, a double, a triple and a home run.

Don Thompson ran up the victory flag for the first time this year after four losses.

The Crackers remain in fifth place in the blazing Southern Assn. race, only 2½ games behind Birmingham. In fact, only six games separate seventh-place Memphis from the top spot.

Boyer Leads Majors in Home Runs

By CHARLES MAHER

Associated Press Sports Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The publicist for the St. Louis Cardinals watched as one of Ken Boyer's drives crashed among the Coliseum's left field seats, then announced:

"If that guy played for the Dodgers, he could hit 60 home runs a season without ever playing in a road game."

Jim Toomey, like other publicists, may be operating in some-thing of a blind-confidence game, but his estimate might have more substance than he intended.

Boyer leads the majors in homers with 13, and he has hit 7 of them against Los Angeles — 4 in 6 games at the Coliseum.

He could play 77 games here, and clear the left field screen with his recent consistency, he'd wind up with 51 homers for a half-season's work.

The 6-foot-2 third baseman drove another one into the seats Wednesday night as the Cardinals won 5-2. Boyer got his homer in the seventh, two innings after Daryl Spencer broke a 2-2 tie with a two-run double.

Cardinal Manager Solly Hemus might have been giving Boyer something easy to shoot at when he remarked later:

"I figure he'll hit 35 homers this year. If he were playing here, I'd say he'd hit about as many as Frank Howard (the 6-foot-7 Dodger rookie) will eventually."

Police said Bladley was spotted allowed just one hit — a first-inning home run by Mickey Mantle — in a 4-1 victory over the Yankees, walking only two and retiring the last 16 in order.

Hitting — Gene Freese, White Sox, drove in four runs, three with a homer, in 6-0 victory over the Tigers.

Other than for the weatherman's gloomy prediction, conditions were considered good. In pre-tournament play several pros hit in the 60s and 25 for them broke par.

In the social warmup yesterday, Bert Weaver of Beaumont, Tex., led his team of three amateurs in a phenomenal 20 under par. The foursome won the pro-am contest, with their best holes totaling 50.

A 68 by Weaver was the team's best individual 18-hole score.

Lowest pre-tournament score was Gene Little's 64. He was followed by Ted Kroll with a 65.

Ben Hogan, who with Art Wall and Doug Ford practiced instead of playing in the pro-am, commented that some pros soon will be down in the 50s.

"I think these fellows are going to keep hitting lower scores. They start out with a lot of golf knowledge that wasn't available to us," said Ben.

Willie Can't Catch Up With Archie

CHICAGO (AP) — Despite Willie Pastrano's nimbleness, he will hasn't been fast enough to catch up with the man he wants most — light heavyweight champion Archie Moore.

The jogging, jabbing Miami boxer, ranked No. 3 by the National Boxing Assn., registered his fourth straight victory of the year with ease Wednesday night. He took a top-sided 10-round decision over Chicago's bewildered Sonny Ray, who chased and chased the flitting Pastrano like a man with a pug net.

"I'm going to stay in the light-heavy ranks," said Pastrano afterwards. "I'll do as much fighting as I can, but I hope someday I can catch Moore for a title shot."

Pastrano weighed 175 pounds. Ray came in at 173, but must have lost at least five pounds running after Pastrano in the televised Chicago Stadium affair.

Under the five point must system, Referee Walter Brightmore scored it 40-42. Judge Howard Walsh 48-46 and Judge John Schreiner 47-44. The Associated Press card favored Pastrano 49-45.

Four Questioned on Bank Robbery

IDABEL, Okla. (AP) — Four men were in the McCurtain County Jail today being questioned about a $17,500 bank robbery at Valliant March 8.

The State Crime Bureau said two men were arrested yesterday and two others at 5 a.m. today. Names of the four were not released. No charges have been filed.

The First State and Guaranty Bank was robbed by two masked gunmen, one armed with what was believed to be a sub-machine gun. The getaway car was found a short time later four miles north of Valliant.

Three men were subsequently apprehended at De Queen, Ark., but released after extensive questioning.

The robbers forced bank employees to put the cash into a pillow case.

Orioles Now Boasting a 2½ Game Lead

By ED WILKS

Associated Press Sports Writer

Those bustling Baltimore Orioles have a 2½ game lead in the American League, the biggest edge of the season in the majors, now that old panny guy Hal Brown has shown the kids how it's done.

The left-hander permitted just one hit—Mickey Mantle's first-inning home run—while beating the New York Yankees 4-1 Wednesday night. It was Brown's first one-hitter in a 10-year career, and rookie Ron Hansen's three-run homer in the fifth inning made it pay off for the Birds' sixth victory in seven games.

Baltimore gained half a game over the second place Cleveland Indians, who were rained out at Kansas City, and stayed 2½ games ahead over Chicago's defending champion White Sox. The Sox whipped Detroit 4-0 behind southpaw Frank Baumann, who gave up four hits in the first shutout of his six-year career.

Boston's two-night doubleheader with Washington was rained out. In the National League, Pittsburgh retained a 1½ game lead, winning five in a row with a 5-0 decision over Cincinnati on a Bob Friend's three-hitter. Second place San Francisco defeated Chicago's Cubs 2-1 on a two-out double in the ninth by winner Sam Jones. Milwaukee regained third place, 6½ games behind with a 6-3 victory at Philadelphia after losing four in a row. St. Louis defeated Los Angeles 5-2.

Brown, now 4-1 with his second victory over the Yankees, walked two, struck out three and was perfect over the last 5:23 innings. He gave up both walks to Mantle and Yogi Berra, in the fourth inning, but escaped by getting Bob Cerv to hit into a doubleplay, the fifth by the Birds.

Baumann, now 5-0 lifetime against the Tigers, failed to strike out a man, but walked just one and faced the minimum 12 men over the last four frames while sending Detroit to a fifth straight loss. Gene Freese drove in four runs for the White Sox, three with a homer, in a four-run ninth against reliever Tom Morgan. They had only three hits in eight innings off loser Jim Bunning (1-3) but clumped three of them in the fifth for two runs on singles by Minnie Minoso and Freese, that sandwiched Sherm Lollar's double. Earl Torgeson also homered in the ninth.

Couldn't Buy Services in Horse Rescue

CHICAGO (AP) — You could hardly buy the services involved in rescuing Tommy from his predicament.

Maybe Julius Pekosky couldn't have bought those services; maybe he wouldn't.

Tommy couldn't have bought his way out of his trouble; it looked like he didn't want to get out of it, anyway.

But, Tommy the horse, whether he enjoyed his fling into the public's eye or not, is once more a member of the diminishing horsey set that pulls a fruit and vegetable cart.

Tommy's troubles started Monday when he fell down a stairway (or walked down) or fell through rotted boards into an unused, empty wine cellar. The first floor now is used as a stable.

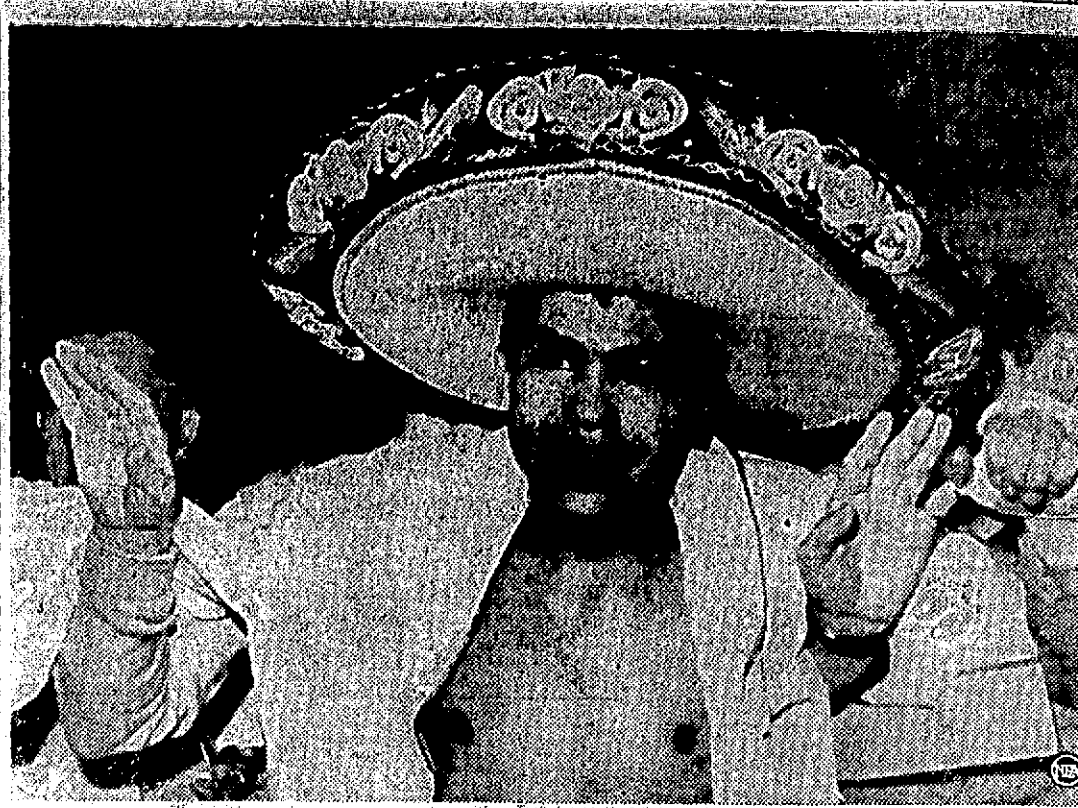

Pekosky, his owner, found him Tuesday, and when his own efforts to free Tommy failed called the anti-crucifix society for help.

J. J. Shaffer, managing director of the society, looked over the situation and decided Tommy might be enticed out of the cellar with hay and other horse goodies. None worked.

So engineers were called; they looked over the problem and decided to call.

Four pieces of fire department equipment; several police and squad cars; several civil defense rescue unit trucks; an assortment of construction crew men; a tow truck, a winch, block and tackle unit.

Tommy spent most of Tuesday and Wednesday plaidly munching hay and drinking water.

A tarpaulin was stretched around his midsection and attached to a hoist; it slipped and anyway, Tommy refused to cooperate. Tommy remained in the cellar.

Workers covered Tommy with an asbestos blanket and others widened the opening above him. When the groundside workers encountered metal and concrete, acetylene torches and pneumatic drills were used to enlarge the opening.

Gates said that on Sunday night, May 15, the U.S. representatives at Paris, headed by President Eisenhower, "were already aware of the sense of the statement Mr. Khrushchev was going to make the following morning."

"The conditions which he had set for his participation in the conference made it apparent even at the time that he deliberately intended to wreck the conference," Gates said. "This communications alert was not an act that was either offensive or defensive in character. It was a sound precautionary measure."

Mop-up After Fire

GAGNON, Que. (AP) — Some 2,000 fire fighters began mop-up operations today to wipe out forest fires that, since Sunday, have threatened this mining town 550 miles northeast of Montreal.

In Montreal, a spokesman for the Quebec Cartier Mining Co. said the 353 women and children airlifted there from Gagnon Monday will not be returned until the blaze is completely under control.

from leave. There was no movement of forces involved. However, I want to emphasize that it did make certain that if subsequent developments made necessary a higher state of readiness, such action could be taken promptly and convincingly.

Gates' testimony was expected to wind up four days of hearings by the Senate committee.

Rural Church of the Year Is Named

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — The Fountain Lake Methodist Church near here has been named rural church of the year by the Town and Country Commission of the Little Rock Methodist Conference.

Selection of the Fountain Lake church was announced last night at a dinner meeting highlighting the second day of the conference's annual meeting.

The Rev. Connie Robbins is pastor of the winning church, which was selected over 14 other nominees on a basis of progress made during the past year.

Dr. Pierce Harris of the First Methodist Church in Atlanta, told delegates last night that present day measurements of profit and pleasure are unstable.

"Christ is more concerned with the spiritual dimensions of life than the material dimensions," Harris said. He said deep convictions, broad sympathies and lengthy sacrifices are measurements for magnificent living ideas.

Mexican Labor Quota Increased

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The quota of Mexican National for Arkansas farm work has been increased by 1,000 to a total of 11,215.

J. L. Bland, state Employment Security Division administrator, said the boost, the second in recent weeks, was needed because not enough Arkansas workers were recruited for chopping cotton.

ESD's first quota, 7,215, topped last year's 5,950.

Summer Is Early for Few Plants

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—Summer is starting early for a number of industries to the dismay of some and to the satisfaction of others. But most economists and business executives who speak their minds still are confident that a quiet but generally prosperous four month lie ahead.

The resort industry is looking for its biggest year. And that is also good news for the public transportation systems and for all those who service the family car. Most suppliers of recreation equipment are also convinced that the outdoor season is starting early.

But on the more sober side is the steadily declining output in the steel industry, the disappointing figures in the home building industry, and the lagging arrival of new orders in many manufacturing front offices.

Steelmen have seen their output slide in 11 of the last 12 weeks. The industry is now producing at about two-thirds of capacity. Orders have been coming at a slow enough rate to seem to offer little hope of any pickup soon. And just ahead is the usual summer slowdown when many of steel's customers close for vacations of from one to three weeks.

An added complication this summer is likely to be the new attitude toward inventories seen in many manufacturing companies. Purchasing agents have been revising their ideas of how big a stock of various materials they need.

For one thing, the days of shortages and threatened shortages seem to be over. New supplies can be got quickly when needed. For another, electronic machines keep more accurate tabs on what is needed and when it will be needed than in the old days of inventor taking. Stock shelves tend to be skimpier these days.

Manufacturing firms in general have been reporting new orders lagging behind sales. In April, for the fifth straight month, the total of unfilled orders dropped.

This has led to some factory layoffs, although so far the biggest decline in employment has been in the steel industry itself.

Auto sales have been running ahead of last year, with a real spring pickup noted. But so large was the auto production and ship-

$500 Is Tough

SEATTLE (AP)—"You'd be surprised how hard it is to get $500 by getting it 50 cents at a time."

But Bonnie Brodine, 17, and her sister, Vickie, 16, got it, and they're on their way to Europe to spend it.

They earned the money babysitting, clerking and working in the public library.

ment to dealers in the first part of the year that total dealer stocks still remain higher than usual for this time of year.

So further production adjustments may have to be made before the plants shut down for model changeovers in the late summer and early fall.

Home builders have been counting on the promise of greater availability of mortgage funds to spur that industry, which until recently was reported trailing last year by 18 per cent in the number of new units started.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Blair, who live on Buffalo River near Gilbert, finally have a water well.

Blair's first well hit a little water at 150 feet, but it wasn't enough so he kept drilling. He found oil at 300 feet. His well hasn't been turned into an oil producer, but it has sparked oil interest in the area.

Blair still didn't have water, though, and that's what he really wanted. His second well hit water at 300 feet. He didn't try drilling deeper the second time.

A Blytheville pre-schooler last week posed this question:

"Know where I'm going on my honeymoon?"

"Where?"

"Disneyland."

A well-dressed man walked in to Jim's Cafe in Camden one day last week and asked to see owner Jim Andritsos. Jim wasn't there, but his son, Chris, was.

The man handed Chris a dollar, explaining it was payment for a dinner. The man, now a Tuscaloosa, Ala., businessman, had eaten the dinner on Jim in 1936 when he wound up broke and hungry while passing through Camden.

After 4 years, he still remembered the favor.

Hobo, a dog belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Bill Grant and their children, Vicki Lynn and Ricky, thought he was being deserted when the family drove off from their home in Waco, Tex., without him.

So Hobo set out in search of them. He didn't know they'd gone to Houston, some 150 miles away. But he headed for the most likely place, to him—Bryan, some 80 miles from Waco, where the Grants used to live.

Former neighbors telephoned the Grants, who got Hobo back to his rightful home.

Mrs. Grant is a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Coy Parker of Conway.

El Dorado's high school graduation was not without its mishaps.

First, the crowd overflowed the 1,700-seat auditorium, leaving barely room enough for the graduates. Then the air conditioning and public address systems went out.

The speaker was fixed by the time the commencement address by David W. Mullins, new University of Arkansas president, began, but the cooling system stayed off, a not too pleasant situation on a warm evening.

Later in the evening a television newsman, reporting on the graduation, referred to the speaker as "Dr. Harris," though he couldn't explain how he got Dr. Mullins confused. Then a newspaper account of the ceremony appeared including this sentence:

"The Wildcat band formally opened graduation ceremonies by playing Prompt and Circumstances."

A Little Rock father wrote his college-age daughter:

"For crying out loud I'd just as soon you quit writing me until you learn how to spell. It takes me too long to figure out what you're trying to say."

Compromise Construction Measure

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House today accepted a Senate-House committee compromise bill authorizing a $1,185,320,000 military construction program in the year beginning July 1.

The measure, which does not carry any appropriations, still requires Senate approval but no opposition is expected there.

An appropriation bill, carrying funds for many of the projects that would be authorized in the bill accepted by the House today, already has been sent to the House by its appropriations Committee.

Action on the money bill must await final passage of the authorization measure.

Arkansas projects in the compromise measure include: Blytheville Air Force Base, $1,720,000; operational facilities for the Air National Guard at the Fort Smith Municipal Airport $164,000; Naval Reserve at Fayetteville $87,000; and Army National Guard Armories and other facilities at Danville, Dumas, Heber Springs, Perryville, Sheridan, Marshall Mountain Home and Siloam Springs, all listed at $45,000 each except last three, $47,000 each.

Rhee's Party Quick to Change Sides

Former President Syngman Rhee's Liberal party collapsed 16 days as 104 of the 134 party members in the National Assembly said they now are independents.

Fleeing the sinking Liberal ship, the bolters said they wanted to "comply with the spirit of the democratic revolution" which toppled Rhee's government.

It was obvious they also hoped to escape responsibility for the widespread corruption, election rigging and politics brutality of which the party has been accused.

With the collapse of the Liberals, the Democrats, headed by former Vice President John M. Chang, became the biggest party in the Assembly with a total of 70 seats. A total of 114 members in the Assembly are now independents.

Not So Tiny

WASHINGTON (AP)—A tiny package popped out of its container 210 miles over the Virginia coast Tuesday night and swiftly inflated into a plastic balloon to stories high.

The balloon was the fifth in a series of test launches in preparation for putting one into orbit from Cape Canaveral, Fla.

Scientists hope to use such balloon satellites for bouncing radio communications to great distances around the earth.

Roast Beef Big Feature in Markets

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Roast beef takes over the featured spot among special offerings by supermarkets and neighborhood stores this weekend.

Chicken and round roasts are the most widely advertised.

But housewives will have ample opportunity for variety of choice among the weekend specials. Chicken and ham is widely featured. Other bargains include stewing beef, ground beef, pork loins, leg of lamb, turkey, fish cakes, and steaks and scallops.

Meat prices generally are higher than a week ago. In various sections of the nation, sirloin steaks are up from 4 to 20 cents a pound, loin pork chops up from 4 to 6 cents and fryers up 2 to 4 cents.

An exception is roe roast which is unchanged to 10 cents below last week.

Egg prices in the New York area are unchanged but down 5 cents a dozen in Washington, 4 cents in Boston and 2 cents in Chicago and Jacksonville, Fla.

There was a wide variety of "best buys" in vegetables—beans, beets, cabbage, Texas carrots, corn, all types of lettuce, escarole, onions, radishes, green Italian type squash, collards, kale, mustard, turnip tops, spinach and asparagus.

Rated good buys are broccoli, Florida celery, cucumbers, peppers, endive, rhubarb, potatoes and watercress.

Best buys among fruits are strawberries and limes. Avocados, lemons, California oranges and watermelons are good buys.

AEA to Ask Surplus for Education

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Education Assn. will ask the 1961 Legislature to allocate 52.2 per cent of all surplus state funds to the public school fund, AEA Director Forrest Rozzell said today.

Rozzell noted that current revenue reports indicate the surplus for the 1959-60 fiscal year will be four to five million dollars and a surplus of seven million dollars is expected in 1960-61.

"We will ask the 1961 General Assembly to distribute this surplus money on the formula of the revenue stabilization act," Rozzell said. "And we'll ask the 1960-61 surplus be distributed immediately rather than waiting for new appropriations for the 1961-62 biennium."

"The schools' share of a seven million dollar surplus would be about 4.12 million dollars."

Under the revenue stabilization act, the 1959 Legislature allocated 53 million dollars for the current fiscal year. Of this, $44,500,000 was earmarked for the public school fund. The last payment under this allocation was made yesterday with another month of tax collections to go. All tax collections over the 93 million dollar allocation are considered surplus.

Rozzell indicated there is scant possibility the schools will get part of the surplus from the current fiscal year because the Legislature does not meet again until next January, six months after the year has ended.

"But we do not think the surplus should go undivided in 1960-61, even though allocations for that year already have been made," he said.

Rozzell pointed out that when state taxes were raised in 1957 a large portion of the increase was pledged to schools.

"The schools need this money and the AEA is pledged to help them get it," he said, adding that the AEA's efforts have been endorsed by the Arkansas Congress of Parents and Teachers.

Thinks Show Tuesday Was Not Much

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

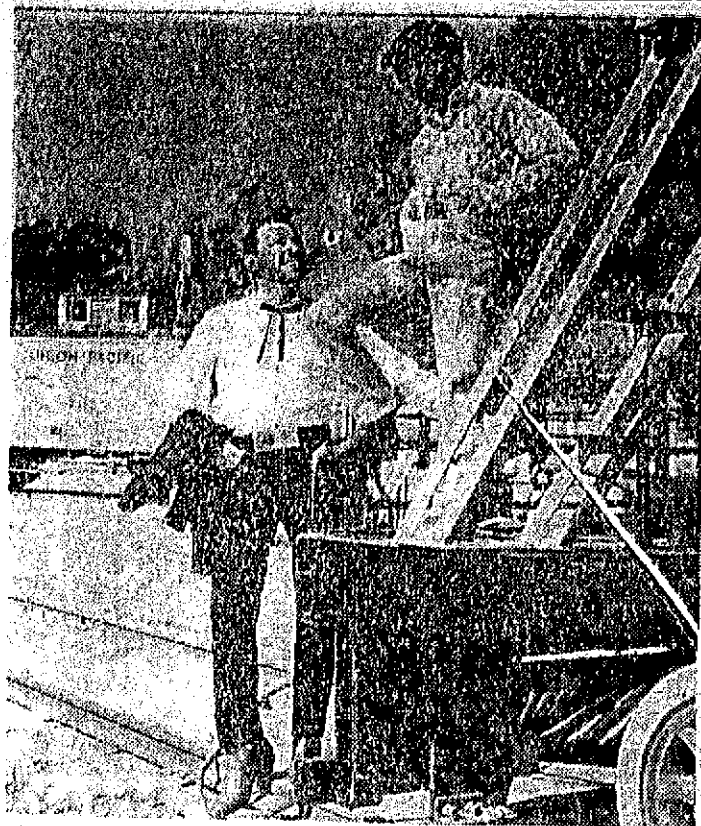

NEW YORK (AP)—Nanette Fabray, Tony Randall and some other talented performers took an hour Tuesday night to demonstrate conclusively that even the best entertainers need decent material.

It was an interminable 60 minutes on NBC devoted to a musical of sorts called "So Help Me Aphrodite." The plot was reverse Walter Mitty—the diner waitress who dreams she's Marie Antoinette and Pocahontas in turn as the comedy-type truck drivers become courtiers and braves.

The basic idea was tired, the lines were stale, and the whole thing defied the efforts of Miss Fabray and Randall.

Big league television is over 10 years old now. That's time enough for it to have learned that original musical comedies just aren't its dish. At least it hasn't been able to come up with a credible effort yet Tuesday night's effort should result in putting that art form permanently off TV limits.

Pork And Beans Go Italian For Dairy Month

With the closing of school for the summer comes a round of teenage gatherings. Refreshments are always an important part of these affairs and "what to serve" is always a leading question. One of the most popular teenage favorites is pizza. . . that famous Italian treat that had made a hit with the adults, too.

Here's a new version for you to try. One that will strike a high note with the girls and boys. BEANZZA . . . it combines saucy pork and beans with Italian sausage and oregano. 1960 Could End Visits by Presidents

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—The year 1960 may turn out to be the one which put a damper on summit meetings and presidential trips abroad and at the same time badly damaged American prestige.

If President Eisenhower, on his trip to Japan in June, runs into a riot of anti-American protest, it will do neither him nor this country any good. It will make any future president reluctant about a foreign journey.

Vice President Richard M. Nixon, who ran into anti-American riots on his South American tour in 1958, indicated Tuesday that in American presidents will be the future summit meetings for last resort.

Japan—a key to defenses in the Pacific—were established under a 1951 agreement which many Japanese have resented.

So a new agreement was worked out to give Japan a position of equality with this country in Asian defense. But this, too, ran into a storm from Japanese Communists, Socialists and nationalists.

They rioted in protest. They also rioted against Eisenhower's proposed trip to Japan. But the pro-Western Japanese Premier, Nobusuki Kishi, approved the military agreement. And Eisenhower Tuesday made it definite he will visit Japan.

The new defense agreement with Japan goes into effect June 19, just about the time Eisenhower arrives there. Kishi probably has assured Eisenhower his government will preserve order when he arrives.

It may not be able to. If, in attempt to prevent any disturbance, the Japanese police get overly tough with demonstrators, Eisenhower could be walking into the most unpleasant experience of his life.

He seems to enjoy these trips abroad. But just what tangible benefits this country gets from such journeys is not clear at all. Each one of them has potential danger.

Eisenhower took a dim view of summit conferences, favoring instead the older kind of diplomacy in which foreign ministers made the deals and agreements, but only, of course, with the approval of the head man at home.

This always provided the head of state with an out if the foreign ministers' conferences failed or there was some other snafu.

He himself, by staying home, was safe from personal and public ridicule such as Premier Nikita Khrushchev dumped on Eisenhower at Paris.

But when he went to the summit in Paris the blowup there finished any chance that Eisenhower would go to another such meeting before he leaves office next Jan.

Nixon, who has hopes of taking Eisenhower's place as the new president, seemed to show reaction inside the Eisenhower administration against future summit meetings.

Nixon said: "While we do not rule out any meeting which might contribute to the cause of peace, certainly the world will now have greater confidence in the traditional method of diplomacy and discussions in the United Nations than in the summits on which Mr. Khrushchev has in the past insisted."

Until Khrushchev battered him—and the American government lied about the U2 spy plane downed over the Soviet Union—Eisenhower had a world prestige unmatched by any present head of state.

If he runs into disorders aimed at him in Asia, he will return a dejected figure.

To Uphold Pledges

WASHINGTON (AP)—A spokesman asserted today the United States will live up to its defense pledges to nations menaced by Soviet rocket threats.

State Department press officer Lincoln White accused Soviet Marshal Rodion Y. Malinovsky of trying to "intimidate governments which are absolutely blameless" in connection with U.S. spy plane flights.

Malinovsky declared in a speech Monday that he had ordered Soviet rocket forces to blast any base from which a foreign aircraft might violate the borders of the Soviet Union or its allies.

White also said the State Dept. in having some official in the parliament has not had any success U.S. Embassy in Moscow interview Francis G. Powers, the captured pilot of the U2 aircraft which went down in the Soviet Union May 1.

Years Ahead Didn't Seem Too Good

By HAL BOYLE

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — She had done her best—that she was sure of.

The decree had been granted and she was alone in the dark with the two children that should have fleshed her and her husband together, but in the end hadn't.

He hadn't fought, her and she had had her way in court and the victory was all hers, and she wished in her dry mouth for the sweet taste of victory, but it had no flavor.

Yet the victory was there. The court said it was there. The children were hers, and she had got a good settlement—all he had in the bank—and lawyers fees, the insurance and a third of his salary.

She could thank the judge for that. He has been stern and just. He was a family man himself. He had done what was right. He had recognized she was a good wife.

She had a feeling of relief. "I have done what was right, too," she told herself. She even told herself she held no anger against her husband. It was just life.

"I wasn't trying to punish him, but he has his responsibilities," she said, alone.

She went into the kitchen and opened the refrigerator and made herself a sandwich.

As she munched it she thought back about the whole thing. "What else could I do?" she thought. "After all I have my pride."

She pulled out a bottle of milk and poured herself a glass. She pushed back the refrigerator door. It slammed shut with a bang. She jumped, startled.

Nervously she opened the door again and the light came on. The judge had changed her life for tomorrow, but her refrigerator was stocked for the yesterday she was more familiar with.

As if she were from another world she studied its contents—the planned meals ahead undisturbed, the covered leftovers from before, the jars of baby fruits the kids still clung to for dessert, the meat loaf good for a husband's lunch.

When she saw the meat loaf she wanted to cry. That was something the judge hadn't divided.

It was true of the whole refrigerator. The judge hadn't gone into that. It still belonged to the family as it had been. It held the children's frozen home-made fruit pop sticks, her marmalade from last summer, the bottle of barbecue sauce her husband insisted making that always had too much garlic in it.

Alone in the kitchen she heard her daughter cry from her bedroom. "Mommy, can I have a drink of water?" Comforted by call of need, she brought the child a drink and the girl sighed and relaxed in sleep.

And then her son stirred in his slumber, and murmured, "Daddy, Daddy."

It wasn't a summons. It was only a statement.

"Daddy," her son murmured again. "Daddy."

The mother looked down at her boy in the dark, and her heart was dry for an answer. What would she say to him when he awakened?

She went back into the kitchen, opened the refrigerator, and pulled out the meat loaf that would have been part of her husband's lunch.

She had meant only to make another sandwich for herself, but all of a sudden she clasped the cold meat loaf to her warm bosom and wept for the years ahead.

market. One of the better recent ones is Ken Murray's "Life on a Pogo Stick."

It is no confession of the "How I Conquered Drink, Dope and Delinquency to Become a Star" school. It is an aptly named account of a comedian-showman's many ups and downs in the entertainment business. He has a natural pride in the cups but doesn't gloss over the downs—he quotes a New York review describing his "Blackouts" as "long, vulgar, unfunny."

The most fascinating part of the Murray saga is his personal life. Ken describes his early years with his beloved mom and pop and older brother Joseph, a stern man home only seldom. Ken was a teen-ager before he learned that mom and pop were actually his grandparents and Joseph, with whom he often argued, was his father.

Joseph was a vaudevillian who didn't want it known he had a growing son. He had been divorced from Ken's mother and figured the boy would have a more normal upbringing with his grandparents acting as his real mother and father. Ken's story of his search for his mother is a poignant tale.

Asks Order to Halt Picketing

CLARKSVILLE, Ark. (AP)—A hearing is scheduled June 6 on a temporary restraining order to halt a picket line which temporarily disrupted work on a new factory here.

Chancellor George O. Patterson issued the order yesterday on request of the Baldwin Co., the contractor building a new Herbst Shoe Co. plant. About 15 pickets, identified as members of Laborers Local 107, appeared at the job yesterday. Workmen did not cross the line.

The pickets were not employed on the project. A spokesman, Jack Daniel of Clarksville, said the picket line was set up because laborers on the project are being paid less than union rates.

The most valuable part of the book is Jessel's advice to public speakers. Having operated over more chickens-a-laying than any living person, he is well qualified.

Should Pave Way

PARIS (AP)—President Charles de Gaulle said Tuesday night there should be no more summit conferences until the way to agreement is paved by "methodical diplomatic work."

After reasonable preparation by all four powers, De Gaulle said in a TV-radio report to the French nation, France would be ready to play host again to a top level meeting.

De Gaulle was the last of the Big Four leaders to report on the breakdown of the summit parley here two weeks ago.

Youth Injured Near Texarkana

TEXARKANA, Ark. (AP)—A Pine Bluff, Ark., youth was critically injured near here yesterday when his car collided almost head-on with a big transport truck.

Robert Rosen, 20, was hospitalized with a fractured left leg, fractured skull and lacerations on his head and arms.

The Texas Highway Patrol said his car collided with a truck driven by E. G. Murphy, 33, of Ashdown, Ark., six miles south of here on Highway 59. Murphy was not hurt.

Arkla Contracts Before PSC

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Public Service Commission held a hearing today on proposed industrial gas contracts between Arkansas Louisiana Gas Co. and the International Paper Co. at Camden and Reynolds Metals Co. at Gum Springs, near Arkadelphia.

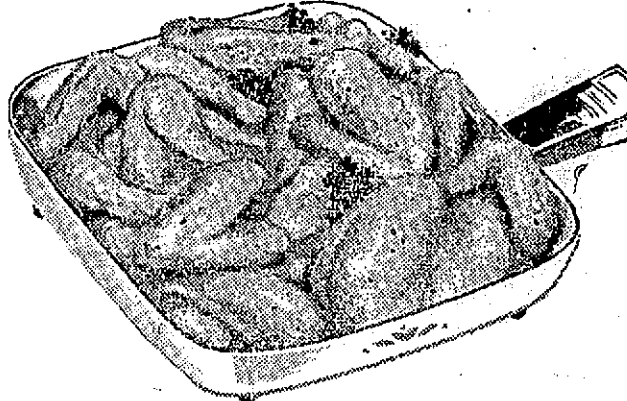

Approval of the contracts is expected to be routine.

The International contract is for delivery of 15 million cubic feet of gas per day for five years. The cost will be 22½ cents per 1,000 cubic feet, except during the last year when it rises to 24.75 cents per 1,000.

Reynolds' contract is based on delivery of 1,100,000 cubic feet per day. The pact runs through 1974. The price will be 22½ cents per 1,000 cubic feet through 1965. In 1965 it becomes 24.75 cents per 1,000 and this increases gradually until the price reaches 29.25 in 1974.

Both contracts contain an integrity clause which empowers Arkla to halt service to the industries if its supply of gas is needed for human use.

Faubus Again Charged With 'Shakedown's'

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
H. F. Williams of Walnut Ridge is the second candidate for Governor to accuse Gov. Orval Faubus of alleged political shakedowns.
Williams charged yesterday that state employees have been forced to contribute from $75 to $250 to the Faubus campaign.
Atty. Gen. Bruce Bennett had charged that employees of the State Employment Security Division had been required to donate to Faubus campaign funds. Bennett asked for a federal Civil Service Commission investigation on grounds that such contributions would violate the federal Hatch Act prohibiting political activity.
Williams declined to name the agencies involved, but said he referred to a department other than the ESD. He said employees who contacted him had said they would be fired if they were linked with his charges.
The amount of the alleged contributions most disturbed Williams. He said that such contributions occur "in every campaign year," but said he had been told a man earning about $3,700 had been asked for a $75 donation and another man making about $5,700 had been told to contribute $250.
Williams linked the alleged fund-raising to a statement in which he said Faubus had changed his confident tone. He noted that whereas the governor had said earlier he was sure of victory in the first primary July 26, a more recent quote had him saying he was not afraid to lose an election.
"The frantic shakedowns of state employees who are woefully underpaid already and the statewide frenzy to get the old machine in high gear belies recent reports that were calculated to still the fears of the fourth term supporters," Williams said.
He repeated a prediction that Faubus would lose his bid for a fourth term by 50,000 votes.
Bennett added a new charge to his mounting list yesterday, accusing Faubus of threatening welfare recipients to get votes. Faubus shrugged off Bennett's accusations, repeating that he doesn't intend to answer every charge hurled in the campaign.
The governor, who has been named to head the National Democratic Convention delegation, said he is still undecided about whether or not he will make the trip to Los Angeles.
The other two candidates, Joe C. Hardin and Hal Millsap Jr., continued their tours of the state yesterday.

Action Sought to Force Rail Repair

GREEN FOREST, Ark. (AP)—Businessmen and shippers have threatened court action to get the Arkansas & Ozark Railroad to restore service on its flood-damaged line.
About 75 representatives of five communities along the railroad yesterday unanimously adopted a resolution demanding that the A&O repair its trucks and resume operation as soon as possible.
The group said it would seek an order from Fort Smith Federal District Court to require the railroad to restore service.
The line has been idle since floods damaged tracks along the route from Harrison to Sligman, Mo., on May 6. An Interstate Commerce Commission investigator estimated repairs would cost $10,000.
Lack of rail service is a hardship on the 50,000 persons living in the area served by the A&O, shippers said yesterday. Delegations came from Harrison, Alpena, Green Forest, Berryville and Eureka Springs.
